December 2020

MESSIAH EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH
Lindsborg, Kansas

Volume 114, Issue 14

Dear Church,

We have entered the season that this is Advent, the season of Arrival. Jesus has come, our first two weeks of the season share, having been prophesied and realized. The second two weeks celebrate that Jesus is to come, as a baby, as Messiah, overlapping the sense of God with us (already)/God coming to us (not yet). Like the circle of the snake swallowing its tail, the circle of seasons, of our celebration of the Christ story, is never-ending, life, death and resurrection until Christ comes again at the end of time.

This year, more than ever, the sense of already/not yet of God with us seems prominent. We have had numerous worldly, social challenges. As we prepare for Christ's coming, King of the Universe, we are called to be aware of the message we share with the world as believers in Jesus' reign. Our message of love, forgiveness, hope, and peace is the message of Jesus' good news for the world, calling us to live differently with old relationships, calling us to find within ourselves the movement of the Holy Spirit which empowers us to live in love, not in worldly divisions. As well, this year I sense a need for a awareness of the humility, the vulnerability with which Jesus came to earth. Dependent on caretakers, reliant on family and on religious leaders who affirmed the message of his arrival, needy in his child-like way of growing into a man who offered God's message to ALL people, clean and unclean, Gentile or Jew, slave or free, woman or man, Jesus walked with a confident vulnerability which can only be empowered by God.

We are at the season of Arrival. We have arrived at the end of the secular calendar year, we have come to the beginning of the Church year, two alternative measures of time and awareness which both compel us to look and to listen to the treasures of our hearts, for out of those, we speak.

God is with us, dear believers! We are called and sent to share the good news, even in our moments of frustration and suffering, especially in these times of separation and distancing. How do you do this? What is your way of offering God's grace to others? What gifts are you sharing with whom and how?

Were your answer to be, "I don't know," it is time for you to find a manner in which God might use your energy to honor and glorify God. Were your answer to have many venues in which you share and serve, remember that loving yourself is as important as loving your neighbor.

This season of Arrival has us looking at our traditions, figuring out which create meaning for us.

As a congregation, we are constantly looking for ways to share meaning in, among, and through our people and out, then, into the community, even through this time apart. We've had drive through events, we've hosted on line worship and Marla created a newsletter of people's thoughts. Ministry remains vital and vibrant through the Dala Pantry, Sprout House Mini Miracles, hospital classes, Bethany College classes, and our coffee and study groups.

We are God's people, arrived already and ready to arrive again as God comes to us over and over, empowering us to ever be created anew.

May you, this season, know the confidence in which you have arrived in faith. God has created you for this arrival, all the while growing you into whomever God is calling you to be next. Perhaps that means being alone, mailing cards, calling friends and fellow parishioners, making food to leave on porches, making music to share on social media, drawing a picture, or praying quietly for everyone you know. May the death and resurrection of Christ in this world empower you to die to who you have been and in all vulnerability and dependence on God, open you to becoming the newly gifted person God calls you to be.

Dear Church, may you celebrate today, with all its joy and sorrow, trusting God that you have arrived, a child in God's kingdom. ☺

~May Advent blessings be upon you,
Pastor Amy

CHURCH NEWS

We welcome Andrea Ring, Doctorate of Psychology from Bethany College, as our newest member.

Faithful Pals

As we move through this time of distancing, faith education of our younger members is very challenging. It would be really super if we could have some members who would commit to writing letters, as Pen Pals once wrote, to our younger members. It might also be an interesting idea to have couples who have been married more than 15 years write to couples married less than 15 years...?

The idea would look like this. Faithful Pals would offer to write at least twice a month, making sure to identify themselves as members of Messiah and sharing a return address. Along with the name, age, and address of a recipient, writers would receive prompts. Prompts would not need to be used but would be there as a way to direct letters in a vein of faith-sharing. Recipients would simply receive the letters. There would be no expectation that they would write back. Hopefully, parents and guardians would help younger recipients to respond as they are able.

If it is helpful, the office can supply envelopes and stamps. If you are interested, please email mlchurch@mlc.kscoxmail.com or call 785.227.3977 to receive your information.

Your commitment to writing would be really important. Please contact Pastor Amy at 785.452.0969 if you have any questions.

Christmas Eve Worship

Messiah's Council met on November 18. It was decided that, due to Health Department guidelines on safer practices, we would return to recording our worship. This poses some creative opportunities for our Christmas traditions.

The Christmas by Candlelight will be an online event, airing December 27th. Dr. Lucas is preparing a virtual 'Lessons and Carols' version of the concert.

Christmas Eve will offer several ways to worship. One will be a shortened service that will be online at 5:30 Christmas Eve. One will be a booklet by which you can worship at home. A third option is awaiting approval by the County Health Nurse. This option would have you and those with whom you want to worship signing up through the office for a time to come to the building. You would have a private, 15 minute, safer practices worship led by Pastor Amy, including communion. Watch your email for more information as this option is made available or not. It will most likely depend on the COVID cases in our area.

Address Changes:

This month, we had two households change their addresses. Gloria and Gene Holdsworth moved into Bethany Home. Their contact information is: Eugene and Gloria Holdsworth, 785.227.7377

321 N Chestnut, Room #55

As well, Donna Forsberg moved into Bethany Villages (formerly Bethany Home) at the Sunflower Terrace. Her contact information is: Donna Forsberg, 785.227-2715

821 E. Swensson,
Lindsborg KS 67456

MESSIAH CHURCH WOMEN

Due to an abundance of caution, the December 2 meeting for Messiah Church Women has been postponed until further notice. We look forward to getting together with everyone after the first of the year, and will keep you posted.

DALA PANTRY

The Dala Pantry has been doing tremendously well, we have served over 60 families as of the middle of October. During that time we also made strides by purchasing a fridge and a freezer. With those purchases we have been able to order frozen meats and refrigerate our fresh produce. As of right now we have been able to stock frozen pork loins and plan to get more!

The Dala Pantry will have special holiday hours and be open the Wednesdays of Christmas week and New Years week from 10 am to noon and closed on the holidays.

We are always looking for volunteers, if you would want to volunteer please let me know at either 620-654-7193 or at logan.dawes.18@gmail.com. This is an easy way to volunteer and also counts for students that might need volunteer hours to graduate.

The Lindsborg Library is also hosting a food drive right now! A huge thanks to them and the rest of the community!

Sneak Peek:

Be on the look out for a frozen food drive here in the next month or two!

Thanks for all you have done to keep the Pantry going!

BETHANY HOME

The annual 2020 Christmas Party for Bethany Home will be done differently this year. Bethany Home is asking for your monetary donations only.

They will NOT be accepting gifts, or cookies at this time. Please mail in your offering to: Bethany Home – 321 N Chestnut Lindsborg Kansas, 67456.

This ministry provides extra food to families in the greatest need in the Smoky Valley. Because we are not able to have the TACOL Thanksgiving service this year, and will therefore be unable to take our annual offering.

A decorative border of holly leaves and red berries surrounds the central text. The leaves are green with pointed, serrated edges, and the berries are small and bright red. The border is set against a white background with faint, light-colored floral patterns.
